

Check it Out

New graphic fiction titles, located on the Graphic Fiction/Nonfiction Collection shelves in the East Rotunda:

PN
6727
T37A93
2009

PN
6727
H36L3313
2008

PN
6790
J34K5813
2007
v. 6

Night Powell Open Tenth and Finals Week

University Librarian Gary E. Strong has committed to funding the opening of Night Powell, the extended-hours reading room, for the final week of classes and finals week during the fall quarter. Details regarding hours will be included in the November issue, so stay tuned.

What's Happening?

Exhibit: "Forty Years of Breaking Ground: UCLA Asian American Studies"

Powell Library Rotunda
Through December 11

Event: College Library
First Annual Carved
Pumpkin Contest

Powell Library Rotunda

Judging: Thursday,

October 29, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Awards: Friday, October 30, noon

Concert: Classical Guitarist
Chelsea Green

Thursday, November 5,
5 p.m.

Powell Library Rotunda

What's Bruin Bear Up To?

Bruin Bear and friends are ready for Halloween. Are you?

First Annual College Library Carved Pumpkin Contest

Bring your already-carved pumpkin to College Library on Thursday, October 29, for a new contest in which six students will win prizes. Your fellow students will be your judges.

Come vote on your fellow students' artistic efforts until 5 p.m. Enjoy some cookies and apple cider while you check out the pumpkins. Complete contest rules are available at <http://www.library.ucla.edu/libraries/college/10375.cfm>.

Winners will be announced at noon on Friday, October 30.

