Associate Librarian
Serve as the subject specialist for Korean Studies for a university library; provide in-depth reference and research guidance; select materials in all formats and languages to serve the research, teaching, and learning needs of faculty and students; make assessments and decisions regarding the acquisition, retention and preservation of collections; develop and deliver library general instruction and course-specific instruction to support teaching and learning; develop digital projects, research initiatives, and curricular and teaching activities, in collaboration with faculty and other librarians; analyze trends in departmental teaching and research programs and stay abreast of scholarship in the disciplines to respond to faculty and student needs; and participate in and contribute to professional organizations, including the Korean Collection Consortium of North America.

Salary:
$54,722 to $86,072 per year

Jobsite: 405 Hilgard Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90095

Send resume to Assistant Director, UCLA Library Human Resources, Box 951575, L.A., CA 90095-1575

This notice is being posted in connection with the filing of an application for permanent alien certification. Any person may provide documentary evidence on the application to the Certifying Office, U.S. Department of Labor, ETA, Atlanta National Processing Center, Harris Tower, 233 Peachtree Street, N.E., Suite 410, Atlanta, GA 30303.