To Begin, enter speccoll.library.ucla.edu in an internet browser. This will bring up the following page:

Welcome!

Many thanks for your interest in our holdings here at UCLA Library Special Collections. Any requests to access special collections materials are made through Aeon, our electronic request system.

With Aeon you can:

• submit requests automatically via links in our online catalog, Voyager
• submit requests automatically via links in our finding aids on the Online Archive of California (OAC)
• submit requests in advance of your visit or while at the library
• submit requests for duplication (digital scans/photocopies) of special collections materials
• track the status of each request
• access detailed information about past requests

Congratulations, you have now created your UCLA logon ID (UID)!

NEXT STEP is to logon to the Online Request System (Aeon) and REGISTER by filling out the online form.
Please return to speccoll.library.ucla.edu and click Login. Enter your UCLA Logon ID.
You will now begin the Aeon registration process. Please read this information and scroll to the bottom.
Fill out the registration form, making sure to complete all fields with a red asterisk next to them. Department is not a required field so you can ignore this asterisk. Below is an example of how to complete the Institutional Affiliation section.
You have now registered with Aeon! To begin placing requests, you can click the library catalog link in the upper left corner.
Type in a search term in search box:

And click on a collection or item:
You will then be brought to the catalog record for the item. Additional information, as well as a link to the Online Archive of California (OAC) record, may be displayed. To directly request material from this page, click the blue “Request Material” button and continue to page 17. To go to the OAC and request from there, please click the OAC link and proceed to page 16.
The Los Angeles Times was founded in 1881 and was incorporated as the Times-Mirror Company in 1884. The collection consists of photographs as well as photographic prints documenting events and people in Southern California, the U.S., and the world. The material originates from the Los Angeles Times newspaper and includes glass negatives (circa 1918-1932), nitrate negatives (circa 1925-45), and safety negatives (circa 1936-1950). Also included are prints and negatives from the Los Angeles Times Orange County and San Diego bureaus.

Restrictions on Access

Open for research. STORED OFF-SITE AT SRIF. Advance notice is required for access to the collection. Please contact UCLA Library Special Collections for paging information.

Parts of this collection are restricted.

Nitrate negatives are restricted from use.

Once at the OAC record, you can either click the request items button, or click the PDF/HTML buttons to see a more detailed collection guide. There is a request items on this detailed guide as well.
Once the request button has been clicked from either the catalog or OAC, you will be brought to the Aeon Web Requesting Application (WRAPP) page below. There is a special requests and notes section here.
Scrolling further, there is a date selection tool to view material during your visit to our reading room. Please note: if you are requesting duplication (which you will specify on the next page), this date will NOT be the date you receive materials. All requests are processed in the order they are received. Please contact us at speccoll-duplication@library.ucla.edu if you have any questions.

Select the items you would like to view and click submit request.
Once you submit the request, you will be taken to a new page. Here you can choose whether you want to view these items yourself or place a duplication request. Upon clicking “Duplication,” a dropdown menu for format selection and additional details will appear.
Please use the “Item Comment” section to specify what items, pages, etc. you would like copied from each box/folder/volume. When done, click “Submit Request.”
